Bartlett Smith Gavin was born in South Carolina in 1814. His father with two other brothers came over from England in late 1700.

Bartlett Smith Gavin married Martha A. Moody in 1837, daughter of Isom and Priscilla Moody. Her brothers were Charles Caloway, Edward and Aug.

Bartlett and Martha settled in Green County, Alabama and their eleven children were born there. They moved to Clark County, Miss. in 1858 just over the line from Choctaw County. About 3 miles from Mt. Hebron Ala. later years known as the Kim Peritt Place. They made this move by Ox Wagons, carrying house-hold goods, stock etc., crossing Tom Bigbee River at Gainesville Ala. Ferry. This took three days to make the trip, camping the two nights along route. Their new home was a two story house made of hand dressed pine lumber. The Chimney's were made from Limestone rock on the place. This house burned with all their household goods about 1890. The children were married then, so they spent the rest of their days with their children. The children were Margret (known to relatives as Aunt Mag.) She graduated from Mesopotamia, Female Siminary, Green Co. Ala. and taught some of the younger brothers and sisters in their home. After the Civil War she taught several years in the Public Schools of Choctaw Co.

Claud and Edgar later when to Old South University at Greensboro, Alabama and Claud went to Medical College N. of A. at Mobile and got his degree from Emory University in Atlanta, Ga.

The first church at Hebron was log house with fireplace in back, shutter windows over the four one sash window to give light. This had homemade pine desks, as this was used for a school house as late as 1903. Earlier there was a two teacher school down by the creek where the old cotton gin was. Edna Woods (later married Ab Gavin) taught there in 1891-1892. Later there was a high school at Bergamot and the children from Hebron neighborhood walked and attended school there. This lasted for several years, and was partially paid for by the patrons. D. P. Slaughter was principal. Rufus Charles Gavin was licensed to preach on September 24, 1877. He never joined the conference at this time, because he had a large family and could not support them on a circuit rider's pay. He was self educated, that is, he never attended college, but read extensively. When he died his library of several hundred volumes was given to Bob Jones University in Florida. His first charge in the ALABAMA M.C. Conference was Womach Hill Circuit, Alabama. This was in 1893. His last charge was 1909 Cotton Dale, Florida. He preached before and after these dates when ever there was a call.

William Henry Graham came to Choctaw Co. Ala. from South Carolina in 1830, bought and homesteaded a large tract of land at what later was known as Mt. Hebron, Choctaw County Ala. He married Mary Elizabeth Oswalt, daughter of George and Christine Oswalt. They built a home on this site of land which was later given to several of their children. The house was built similiar to Ft. Belvoir, six 20x20 ft. rooms and 20 ft wide hallway through the house with steps all the way across front and back of house. The chimneys were built of hand made brick as were the huge pillars. The house was built ten ft. off the ground. Underneath the house was used for storage and children to play. The windows were built of small glass panes that were imported. The window frames were made by slave labor and pegged together with wooden pegs. The house was painted inside and out with pure white lead and linseed oil. The lumber, all hand planed and cut. The Timbers all ~~handhand~~ hued from heart pine. The slave kitchen was in backyard, which was later used for smokehouse. The slave cabins were built of cedar logs which consisted of one room and rock chimney. There were six in a row in edge of orchard. The children went to Old Piercies Spring Academy. The girls rode horseback and the boys walked. This was four miles.

Their children were:

John Graham-	Married	Narcissa Pool
Rebecca	"	Thomas Bonney
Henry	"	Catherine Gavin
Mary Ellen	"	Dr. William Wesley Johnson
(Amanda)	"	(Rufus C. Gavin) my grand father
George	"	?
William	"	Julia <sup>Gavin</sup> Graham, William Being the youngest son inherited the home place as was customary in those days.

Mary and Amanda married soon after the Civil War when times were so hard. Their father, William Henry Graham Sr. asked them which they wanted a big wedding or one thousand dollars and 500 acres of land. Wunt Mary took the big wedding. Amanda was maid of honor. Her dress cost thirty dollars per yard. Wunt Mary did not remember how much hers cost. She had the big wedding with all the neighbors invited and a banquet afterwards, which was held in the big hall and consisted of roast turkey and roasted whole pigs with apples in mouth and all the fixings.

Amanda took the money and land. She used the money to build home within sight of her father's home. John Graham built he home just below Amanda's home. Thomas Boney and wife Becky moved to Texas about 1900. Several of John Graham's family moved to Baldwin Co. In and near Bay Minette, Ala. Some of them are living in Jacksonville Fla.

Dearest Cousin:

As late as this past week-end I had hoped to be with you on the occasion of this year's reunion, but due to the illness of my younger daughter, Stacey, it has become impossible for me to make the trip. However, I shall be thinking of each of you, including those of you whom I have not met. I feel as though I know each of you and I will plan again next year to try and come for that gathering. It is with that thought in mind that I am writing this type of letter.

As most of you already know, there are a number of us who are working to produce a true and authenticated history of our family backgrounds. We have made many interesting, amusing, and "awe-full" (no "awful" ones so far!) discoveries about our early (as far back as the 1600's on some lines) kins-people. I have received lovely letters from some of you, and am grateful to those of you who have shared what information you have had in your possession. I understand that there are still some of you who have, or may have, still more information, including Bibles, old records and other data, which might be of some aid in researching still other family lines. It is not my desire now the desire of any of the ones who are engaged in this "task of pleasure" to borrow, ask for, or take anyone's family treasures or keepsakes. We ask only that you share with us what you have by sending Xerox copies (for which I shall be happy to pay) to me or to one of the others who is helping with this. There will be present in your midst today (I hope!) a couple who has been like a candle in the window on a stormy night, as far as the help and encouragement they have both given me. They are Ed and Ann Clayton of Meridian and their three real cool kids, Edwin, Judy, and Bobby. They will be happy to take any information that you may care to give them, and it is certain that they will share with others. There are others who have helped me many times, and helped my late aunt, Effie Gavin, and me to get started on this venture a few years back. One of these is Sadie Roberts. She and her dear husband, Dave, "endured" a visit from me last year (as have the Claytons and dear old George and Nettie Gavin of Magnolia Springs, Ala.) and with God's help in getting our Stacey over her recently discovered ulcer and her continued well-being in regard to her heart defect, I hope to "roam" through that area once more in the not-too distant future. (Sadie, I love you and Dave, and will write a "real" letter to you right away.) The same goes for each of you to whom I owe a letter. Please forgive my delay and bear with me while I try to re-organize my research. There are others I would like to mention who have been so sweet in the past to me and mine. Some of these are Essie Oswalt, and although I have never met him either, I know Cliff must be a jewel for having had the good taste in his selection of a wife. I hope Miss Patti was able to come today also, and if so, then, Patti, I shall also get letters off to you and Essie real soon. I was so sorry to miss the Oswalt re-union again this year, but maybe I can make that one too next year. I am planning to become a "housewife" next summer again, and hope to find much time to "roaming" through Mississippi and Alabama. Also, I look forward to hiking and climbing "Courthouse Hill" again. Do tell them all about that one, Ed, or, rather, Ann, for you were there to the bitter end! I hope to get some pictures of that place next summer or sooner, if possible. Ed, do tell them all how soon our Gavin and related kin were in Mississippi. And explain about the moves that they made. Some of them are still of the impression that some of Bartlet Smith Gavin's brothers went to other places before coming to Miss. This would have been entirely out of the question, for the oldest sons were still at home and all of the children of Charles Gavin and his wife, Margaret Horger Gavin, moved from Green and Perry counties, Miss. a few years after the death of their father, Charles, who died in Perry County, Miss. near the Green County line in 1824. It has been thought for years that he died up in Noxubee county in 1848 or thereabout, but I have records proving when he died, and who his wife and children were. I also have visited the cemetery in Noxubee county, where Margaret Henger Gavin and many of hers and Charles' children and grandchildren are resting. (Tell them about that, Ann.) I have pictures of all of these places, including pictures taken this past summer of the cemetery and gravesites of our Judge Isham Moody and his wife, Priscilla Bass Moody, and probably the grave of one of their little girls, Emeline, who died at 16. This is located in Clarke county. I was not able to see any of you this summer, for I was without a car, and at the mercy of Ann Clayton, (who, incidentally, refuses to claim a kinship with me, but I fear the joke is going to turn out to be on her later!) However, she and Ed carried me over hill and dale uncovering new things of interest. His are was new when I got there and "old" when I left! But we did get many new items, and we also "conferred" with each other on the information which we already had. Back to the pictures, I will be more than happy to send prints of the graves of the grandparents (great-etc.) and other ones of interest, if you who are interested will send me a self-addressed envelope, and .10 for each print wanted. I wish I were able to GIVE them away, but at this point, I am not. I WILL give any information I have in my possession, in exchange for information from any of you. I am sending some forms and will appreciate it so much if you will each fill one out as completely as you can, and return it to me. I am going to be able to go to Houston in the near future and new information will be of great help to me. I also plan to try and make a small booklet on what I have already obtained in my searching. If I receive enough information from you to connect each of you with the older names I have already, such as the children of Bartlett Smith and Rufus Charles Gavins families (also including all the other lines from Charles and Margaret, which include Abraham Andrew Gavin, who has descendants living near there now, and whose descendants are Foster Gavin, who descends from George Washington Gavin, son of Abraham Andrew, and also, Kate Ulmer Rauter, who descends from Clarkasa Gavin, daughter of Abraham Andrew.) I feel as though I knew all of those people so well. Also all of the Besses, Jones, Moodys, Grahams and others. There were so many! AND STILL ARE, THANK GOODNESS!

I shall close this letter with a touching verse taken from Longfellow's "Psalm of Life":
 LIVES OF GREAT MEN ALL REMIND US
 WE CAN MAKE OUR LIVES SUBLINE,
 AND, DEPARTING, LEAVE BEHIND US
 FOOTPRINTS ON THE SANDS OF TIME.

PLEASE let us hear from each of you! With love to each,

Dearest Sadie,

This will just be a short note this time, but I wanted to thank you for the copies out of the Bible that you sent me last week. I have been sick with laryngitis and was out of school for all of last week, but made it back this past week. However, Tina came down with the flu this week and she missed all of her mid-term tests. Stacey was out the same week that I was out, and she had a case of sore throat, so you can see why I am behind in everything. I have some things to copy and send you and will try to get it done this week. I found a write-up of old Pierce's Springs school in a history book on Alabama written by Joel Campbell DuBose, in 1908, and it tells all about the Dr. Mellen who founded the school first in Mississippi and then moved it as a summer session to Mt. Sterling in Choctaw county. It is real good. I am anxious to read the book that Essie sent to you to pass around. Don't forget and leave me out. I haven't been able to find a copy of it out here yet.

You asked about the Oswalts I found out here. We haven't raked up a relationship yet, but it would delight me to do so for they are just precious. We have been to their home twice and Stacey has even ridden their horse. I am going to have them over for a light supper one night, maybe this week, and we will see what we each have learned that is new. His people came out here from Choctaw county, Mississippi. He also has some folks living in Meridian, and didn't know it until one time a year or so ago he and his wife were going through and stopped to eat and saw the name Oswalt in the telephone book and called the man. They found that their people were connected but they didn't have time to go out then. He (his name is Aaron Oswalt) called me the other night when I was out of commission with this thing of mine, and I couldn't talk at all, so I am to call him back. I still am a little hoarse but am much better. I will let you know what I find out. He had gotten a letter from Lois Thead and wanted to know who she was. On some of the old Bible records that he let me bring home to copy one time (the Bible was over a hundred years old, printed in 1850 something) I found the name of one of the witnesses at his grandfather's wedding was a S. C. Boney Ward (this Ward was blurred and may have been Wood). So we figured that there may be a connection there somewhere down the line. He even had a great uncle named E. J. Oswalt whose nickname was "Juke" and probably was Jacob.

I have also run on to some new information on the Gavin line. Ask around and see if any of the Gavins over your way have ever heard of any Ulmers, or Horgers. I have found some Ulmer records and a Charles Gavin, born back in 1780 and something married a Horgers woman. I will also send you copies of this new stuff this week. If you do get the chance, Sadie, try to get to Brightwater and copy me as many of the graves as you can. Just the names, and dates. And if you should get a chance, or know someone who would do it for me, I desperately need to have the cemetery over toward Isney or around in that area that is called Old Bethel. I have found that it used to be called DuBose cemetery and have found that some of the ones that we are looking for are buried in it. So if you have a chance or, if you can get someone to go over there and copy the names and dates I will be glad to pay for having it done. I need them from both places so badly and it will summer before I can get back, if then. I hope to be able to come. If you know of someone that I could write to and ask them about copying some of the different cemeteries in that area do send me their name and address.

I do hope that you and Dave are still well and not having any real bad weather. We are having a lot of rain and nasty weather here. Oh, yes, you asked about the list of heirs in the will of George Oswalt. Back in the summer Essie sent me $20.00 worth of photostats from the courthouse in Tuskegee. They will not make copies from a Xerox machine for they are on real dark cppy paper, but Miss Patti Oswalt sent me a copy a while back of a list of the heirs and I will fix you a copy of that too, this week. It is not true that they did not know where Elizabeth and William went. But back in those days, that distance was so great that it was years before people got back on visits, and then too, I guess that having children kept everyone tied down a lot. And then, too, maybe there was a little friction among some of them way back then, but whatever it was it didn't keep all of us from being here, did it? It is a shame that none of us knew each other until this late date, but I'm real glad that we finally got acquainted! I would have missed some great people. You asked about Louise and me writing a book on the Oswalts. Well, Sadie, I don't know what all has gotten around, but when Effie and I started on this three years ago, I told her that it was my intention to write a family history on my entire family line, on both sides if, and when, I found enough information to put together in book form. Well, I am working on the Gavin, Graham, Oswalt, Schultz, Moody, Taylor, DuBose, Harbin, Lee, Bell, Snyder, Peart, Pickerd, lines, all of which are on my own side. And I am also trying to find out about Robert's side too, and it is comical to find that his Costen folk came over about the same time that our Gavin ones did and settled in the same area for a while. That was in Virginia, in the early 1600's. I will send you copies of all of this as soon as I can get it all together. I just wish that I could interest enough of the Gavins and Grahams and others to the point of writing to others to help and gather information. I have found that I can't possibly do enough letter writing to keep up on all of the lines. And I find myself working more on the lines that do answer my letters promptly and who help me by writing to those that they know who can help furnish information. I have had so many utter strangers write me and give me information, and in return I send them information on some that they are interested in. But so far, only you, Lois, and George Gavin have helped me by sending information. Elmer did give me some that summer at Effie's and also took us to see Claude Land. But you can see how long it will take if I have to do all the writing to all of the different names in the different places to see if they have information. Like the Moody's for example. I don't have any ~~idea~~ idea who to write for information on them. But I know that there are several by that name all around Waynesboro, Meridian, Quitman, and Shubuta. So if some of you could either write, call or go and visit some of them and see if you can learn something about them, then that would give me a lead as to where to look in the records. You see, I still haven't found Bartlett Smith in the 1850 census. Just this past week I found that he may have been living in Greene county, Miss, and not Alabama, for I have checked the 1850 census for Greene county, Ala. and he is not in it. So when I get back to Houston I will check in that one in Miss. and maybe find him. He might also have been in Clarke county at that time. I'll check on that too. He was ~~in~~ the 1860 Choc-taw census, Alabama. I must stop for now. I'll write and send copies.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Nancy Carmichael departed this life at Cross Keys, Ala., on the 19th day of April, 1887, in the 66th year of her age. The deceased was a daughter of George Dewalt, and was born in Lexington District, S. C., on the 31 day of November, 1818. She moved with her father to Alabama in 1834 and temporarily settled in Chambers county, and in the fall of the same year they moved to Macon county and settled near Clift's Depot.

She was married to Mr. Malcom M. Carmichael on the 7th day of January, 1841, and they settled in Honeycut Head in Macon county. Her husband died leaving her a widow in December, 1860. She continued to reside at said place until that part of the county was cut off into Bullock, and shortly afterwards removed to Cross Keys, where she continued to live until her death. She resided in Macon county for nearly 53 years, and thus another one of the early settlers has passed away.

She leaves four children, two sons and two daughters, to mourn her loss—Mrs. P. R. Segrest, of Notasulga, and Mrs. J. S. Lightfoot, of Cross Keys, and W. H. and John Carmichael, of Fitzpatrick. The deceased was indeed a remarkable woman. She early cultivated her children in those noble virtues of honesty, industry, morality, prudence, truth and uprightness. Charity, one of the greatest Christian attributes, was indelibly impressed in her soul. She ever stood with outstretched hands to relieve the sick and destitute, and to speak words of cheer and consolation to those in distress.

But mother-like, in her long and painful illness her mind was continually dwelling upon the condition of her children and grandchildren, and for their future welfare, prosperity and comfort. She bore her afflictions with a Christian fortitude and humbly resigned herself to the will of Him who doeth all things for His glory; and as her gentle soul left the earthly prison angels of peace and mercy waited her loving spirit to the glorious God who gave it.

While God in His wisdom saw fit to remove her from her children and her host of friends, let us bow in humble resignation to His will, saying, "Even so, Father, for it seemeth good in Thy sight." And the body of the dear mother may moulder into clay, but her kind and indulgent lessons, her gentle and loving smiles, her dear and noble image, will live in the hearts and minds of her tender and affectionate children and friends as long as time endures.

To her children we would say, mourn not your loss, but prepare yourselves so that when the messenger of death shall summon you, pray to be ready to "cross over the river," and may you all be reunited with the dear mother around the throne of God.
